Prerequisite Course(s): PSYC 1000 Introductory Psychology

Course Description (from the Academic Calendar/WebAdvisor):

“This course will provide a comprehensive introduction to the broad field of clinical psychology. There will be a focus on models, of clinical psychology, clinical research and practice, clinical judgment, and ethical, professional, and political issues related to the discipline.”

Course Structure/Format:

This course is a synchronous online course. Lectures and tests will be conducted during the scheduled class times. Although lectures will be recorded and available online for “asynchronous” viewing, tests will be taken only during class time (unless arranged differently through Accessibility Services). See the Detailed Schedule for specific dates, topics, and evaluative components. The link for the Zoom lectures will be posted on Nexus in the Announcements section. The same (repeating) Zoom meeting link will be used for lectures and tests, unless specified otherwise. A computer with stable internet to access Zoom and Nexus is required. Students must access Nexus to complete tests and the exam, and access the course outline, class information, and grades. See additional requirements for Zoom below. Students can find answers to frequently asked questions related to remote learning here: <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/covid-19/remote-learning-faq.html>

Additional information regarding Zoom:

To use Zoom for this course you will need:

- a computer with access to high speed internet
- speakers/earphones to be able to hear the instructor
- webcam or equivalent (e.g., camera on a smartphone or tablet with the Zoom app) for final exam ID confirmation
- optional: microphone and webcam to participate (besides text chat) during lectures

For a list of computer requirements including operating systems, devices, browsers, etc., see here:

Evaluative Components:
Test 1	25%
Test 2	25%
Final Exam	50%
TOTAL	100%

Tests (2 x 25% each = 50% total)

Term tests will be a combination of multiple-choice and short answer questions. The Detailed Schedule (below) indicates test dates and topics covered on each test. Tests will be scheduled for the first 75 minutes of class on the exam date and administered online on Nexus. You are responsible for all materials from the assigned readings, even if not covered in lecture, unless explicitly stated otherwise. Tests are open book but must be completed individually. Once the test time has expired, a 5-minute “grace period” will be allowed. After that, late submissions will be deducted 1% per minute late.

Final Exam (50%):

The final exam will be a combination of multiple-choice and short answer questions. It will occur during the final exam period and will be cumulative; however, there will be a larger proportion of questions relating to the course material that follows test 2. It will be administered online on Nexus. You are responsible for all materials from the assigned readings, even if not covered in lecture, unless explicitly stated otherwise. The exam is open book but must be completed individually. Once the exam time has expired, a 5-minute “grace period” will be allowed. After that, late submissions will be deducted 1% per minute late. During the exam, you will be required to connect to Zoom. When you submit your exam, you must message your instructor on Zoom. You will then be invited to a “break-out room” by the instructor or teaching assistant in order to confirm your identity via photo ID (preferably student ID). This will not be recorded, and a screen shot will not be taken. Zoom will not be used to monitor your test.

Optional Bonus Assignment (+3% to final grade):

There will be an optional bonus assignment made available to students beginning on the week of October 18th. Two optional articles will be posted on Nexus. Students wishing to complete this optional bonus assignment should select ONE article to read and submit a 2-page maximum (double spaced, size 12 Times New Roman font, 1-inch margins) paper which includes a summary of the article in their own words as well as their reaction/opinion on the paper. If these requirements for the assignment are met, you will receive a bonus 3% added to your final mark for the course. Note: this is a pass/fail assignment, there are no partial marks. Students wishing to complete the optional bonus assignment should submit their assignment through Nexus by the last day of classes by 11:59 pm.

University and Departmental PoliciesRespectful Learning Environment

All students, faculty and staff have the right to participate, learn and work in an environment that is free of harassment and discrimination. The UW Respectful Working and Learning Environment Policy may be found online at www.uwinnipeg.ca/respect.

Students may choose not to attend classes or write examinations on holy days of their religion, but they must notify their instructors at least two weeks in advance. Instructors will then provide opportunity for students to make-up work and/or examinations without penalty. A list of religious holidays can be found in the 2020-2021 Academic Calendar, in the section, Important Notes (<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/academics/calendar/dates.html>).

Accessibility Services

Students with documented disabilities, temporary or chronic medical conditions, requiring academic accommodations for tests/exams or during lectures/laboratories are encouraged to contact Accessibility Services (AS) at 204.786.9771 or <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/accessibility-services/> to discuss appropriate options. All information about a student's disability or medical condition remains confidential.

Please refer to University of Winnipeg Calendar for information on appeals, withdrawals, misconduct, plagiarism, and cheating. See the on-line General Calendar here:

Academic Integrity

Avoiding Academic Misconduct: Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the Academic Regulations and Policies found in the University Academic Calendar at: <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/academics/calendar/docs/regulationsandpolicies.pdf>. Particular attention should be given to subsections 8 (Student Discipline), 9 (Senate Appeals), and 10 (Grade Appeals). Please note, in particular, the subsection of Student Discipline pertaining to plagiarism and other forms of cheating. Detailed information can be found at the following:

- Academic Misconduct Policy and Procedures:

Students are also strongly encouraged to view the University of Winnipeg library's video tutorial, "Avoiding Plagiarism": <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UvFdxRU9a8g>

Copyright and Intellectual Property

Course materials are the property of the instructor who developed them. Examples of such materials are course outlines, assignment descriptions, lecture notes, test questions, and presentation slides—irrespective of format. Students who upload these materials to file sharing sites, or in any other way share these materials with others outside the class without prior permission of the instructor/presenter, are in violation of copyright law and University policy. Students must also seek prior permission of the instructor/presenter before, for example, photographing, recording, or taking screenshots of slides, presentations, lectures, and notes on the board. Students found to be in violation of an instructor's intellectual property rights could face serious consequences pursuant to the Academic Misconduct or Non-Academic Misconduct Policy; such consequences could possibly involve legal sanction under the Copyright Policy:

https://copyright.uwinnipeg.ca/docs/copyright_policy_2017.pdf

Misuse of Filesharing sites: Uploading essays and other assignments to essay vendor or trader sites (filesharing sites that are known providers of essays for use by others who submit them to instructors as their own work) involves “aiding and abetting” plagiarism. Students who do this can be charged with Academic Misconduct.

Acceptable Use of Information Technology Policy:

Privacy

Please review your rights in relation to the collecting of personal data by the University (<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/privacy/admissions-privacy-notice.html>), and Zoom (<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/privacy/zoom-privacy-notice.html>) and information regarding use of Zoom when testing/proctoring (<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/privacy/zoom-test-and-exam-proctoring.html>)

Remote Learning FAQ

Students can find answers to frequently ask questions related to remote learning here: <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/covid-19/remote-learning-faq.html>

Student Counselling

The material covered in this course can sometimes prompt students to reflect upon issues in their own lives. Students who wish to discuss academic or personal concerns further are encouraged to contact the Counselling Centre. Student Counselling may be contacted at studentwellness@uwinnipeg.ca or 204-988-7611. <http://uwinnipeg.ca/counselling-centre/index.html>
