Course Description:

This course is designed to present the basic concepts of psychological assessment and deals with the theory, construction and use of psychological tests, especially as it relates to Clinical Assessment. Material presented may include personality, vocational and cognitive assessment techniques.

Required Text:

Psychological Testing, Kaplan, R.M. & Saccuzzo, D.P., 8th edition.

Course Requirements:

Class Tests: There will be 3 tests during the term covering text, class handouts, lecture and seminar material. Students will be responsible for all assigned material. Test # 1 (Chapters 1, 4, 5 & 7) will be on Oct 5/21 and test # 2 (Chapters 9, 10, 19 & 21) will be on Nov 4/21. Tests # 1 & # 2 will be composed of 2 or 3 “written long answer” questions (each test will be worth 20 % of the final grade). Test # 3 will be a take home test given to class on Dec 8 /21 and due on or before December 14/21 at 4:00 p.m. (20 % of the final grade). Test # 3 is to be submitted to me by e-mail (as an attachment in PDF format and I will confirm receipt). Test # 3 will be an “essay question” requiring a written answer of absolutely no more that 2 single spaced pages. It will be on a general topic or issue in Psychological Assessment.

Seminar Presentation:

Each student is required to present, via zoom, a class seminar (20 % of final grade, see Seminar Evaluation and Information below). Students will be required to select a "psychological test" and describe its purpose, construction, reliability, validity etc. (this will be further elaborated upon in class). Seminar "topics" must be approved prior to a date being selected (first come first served). Class presentations (2 per class, 30 mins each) will start on Nov 9/21. Prior to your presentation each presenter must email, in PDF, each class member a written summary of their seminar (max 2 single spaced pages not including references, 20 % of final grade).

Summaries are to be written using full sentences and paragraphs (not point form) with references properly cited in the text (numbers can be used) and with a complete reference list. This summary is not to be merely a written version of your oral presentation. The summary is designed to compliment your in class presentation.

N.B. There will be no "make-ups" for tests or seminars. However in extreme cases (i.e. death in the family or extreme illness validated by a doctor), please contact me for alternative arrangements. Failure to write (and email) tests, present your seminars, or email summaries on time may result in a reduction of marks up to the total amount that each assignment is worth.

Example of Grading:

Test 1	15/20
Test 2	17/20
Seminar presentation	16/20
Seminar summary	18/20
Test 3	16/20

Letter Grade: B+	82/100

Letter Grade Equivalents:

A +	95 +
A	85.0 - 94.9
A -	83.0 - 84.9
B +	80.0 - 82.9
B	75.0 - 79.9
C +	70.0 - 74.9
C	60.0 - 69.9
D	50.0 - 59.9
F	49.9 - and below

Please note the following examples illustrating the rounding of marks: eg., a 72.89 becomes 72.9 not 73.0, a mark of 72.99 remains as 72.9.

Procedures and Rules for Class Tests

Test # 1 and # 2 will be administered “in class via Zoom”. Tests will be written individually and remotely. Each of you must join the zoom session on test day @ 11:30 a.m. The test question will be presented to class via zoom. You will have 1 hour to complete the test. Once you have completed the test and before you leave the class you must email me your answer as an attachment in PDF format. The file name must include your name and course #. I will confirm receipt.

Tests are closed book. You are not allowed to access any material of any kind by any means. During the test session, you are allowed to use a word processor to write your test answer. During the test period, you cannot use the internet and you are not allowed to access any other app or computer program. You are not allowed to communicate with another individual by any means. You must position yourself in front of your computer, with the zoom session active, with both video and audio on.

General Rules & Guidelines for Seminar Presentations

As is noted in the course outline, each one of you is required to present a seminar to the class on a test of your choosing. Below I have listed some of the "rules" and “guidelines”.

1. Choose a topic as soon as you can. "Good" tests usually go very quickly (first come first served) as well as the fact that choosing your topic early will provide you with plenty of prep time. This is particularly important if some articles you need have to be requested through "interlibrary loans" (this can take 2-3 weeks).
2. Length: Each student will be allotted a total of 30 mins for their presentation.
3. PowerPoint: It is required that your presentation be a “PowerPoint Presentation” (or equivalent)
4. References: It is expected that you will prepare your talk mainly from the original references. The number of references required will vary depending on the topic, but a “ballpark” number would be ~ 10. You will probably be asked questions which may be related to specific studies and I may ask to see any of the references on your reference list.
5. Evaluation: All seminars will be worth 20 marks and will be marked according to the above

University Regulations and Policies – Revised Sept 2021

Course materials are the property of the instructor who developed them. Examples of such materials are course outlines, assignment descriptions, lecture notes, test questions, and presentation slides—irrespective of format.

Students who upload these materials to file sharing sites, or in any other way share these materials with others outside the class without prior permission of the instructor/presenter, are in violation of copyright law and University policy.

Students must also seek prior permission of the instructor/presenter before, for example, photographing, recording, or taking screenshots of slides, presentations, lectures, and notes on the board.

Students found to be in violation of an instructor’s intellectual property rights could face serious consequences pursuant to the Academic Misconduct or Non-Academic Misconduct Policy; such consequences could possibly involve legal sanction under the Copyright Policy

No equipment is authorized for use in tests/exams (e.g. calculators, dictionaries, hand-held devices, books), unless specified by the instructor prior to the test.

Please note that the grade distribution and letter grade equivalents are tentative and may be changed in either direction by (1) the professor, (2) the Departmental Review Committee, or (3) the Senate, when circumstances warrant. Please review the Academic Dates, Regulations, and Policies from the UW 2020-2021 Academic Calendar:

<http://www.uwinnipeg.ca/academics/calendar/index.html>

It is important to note that only students University of Winnipeg email address (Name@webmail.uwinnipeg.ca) will be used for course related correspondence

Please review the Regulations and Policies section of the Course Calendar dealing with academic regulations and policies including Senate appeals and academic misconduct (e.g. plagiarism, cheating). <http://www.uwinnipeg.ca/index/cms-filesystem-action/pdfs/calendar/RegulationsandPolicies.pdf>

Undergraduate students who plan to conduct minimal-risk research interviews, focus groups, surveys, or any other method of collecting data from any person, even a family member, must obtain the approval of the Departmental Ethics Committee before commencing data collection. (For greater-than-minimal-risk or Graduate student studies, approval of the UHREB is also required.) Exceptions are research activities in class as a learning exercise. For submission requirements and deadlines see: <http://uwinnipeg.ca/research/human-ethics.html>

Students with documented disabilities, temporary or chronic medical conditions, requiring academic accommodations for tests/exams (e.g., private space) or during lectures/laboratories (e.g., access to volunteer note-takers) are encouraged to contact Accessibility Services (AS) at 786-9771 or email accessibilityservices@uwinnipeg.ca to discuss appropriate options. Specific information about AS is available on-line at <http://www.uwinnipeg.ca/accessibility>. All information about a student's disability or medical condition remains confidential.

All students, faculty, and staff have the right to participate, learn, and work in an environment that is free of harassment and discrimination. The UW Respectful Working and Learning Environment Policy may be found online at www.uwinnipeg.ca/respect .
